Dear Dr. MacNeish:

Bob Lubar of our Mexico City bureau wrote to me some time ago about the possibility of obtaining some financial assistance for you in the work you are doing in Mexico.

I have looked into the question and I regret to say that although we all share Bob's feeling that it is a worth-while undertaking we simply have no provision for such grants. The company does occasionally make contributions to libraries and academic institutions, but only on a limited scale, and not to individuals.

I hope, nevertheless, that you will find some way to continue your research.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "John Boyle". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "John" being more prominent and the last name "Boyle" following in a similar style.

Dear Joe:

I would like to thank you very much for the courtesy and warm hospitality you offered me when I was at Peabody this winter. For me it was a pleasant and profitable session and I am only sorry that it was so short. Please thank the other members of your staff for the help given me.

I am enclosing a cheque to you to cover the cost of the shipment of archaeological materials to Mexico, which Eunice informed me you have already paid.

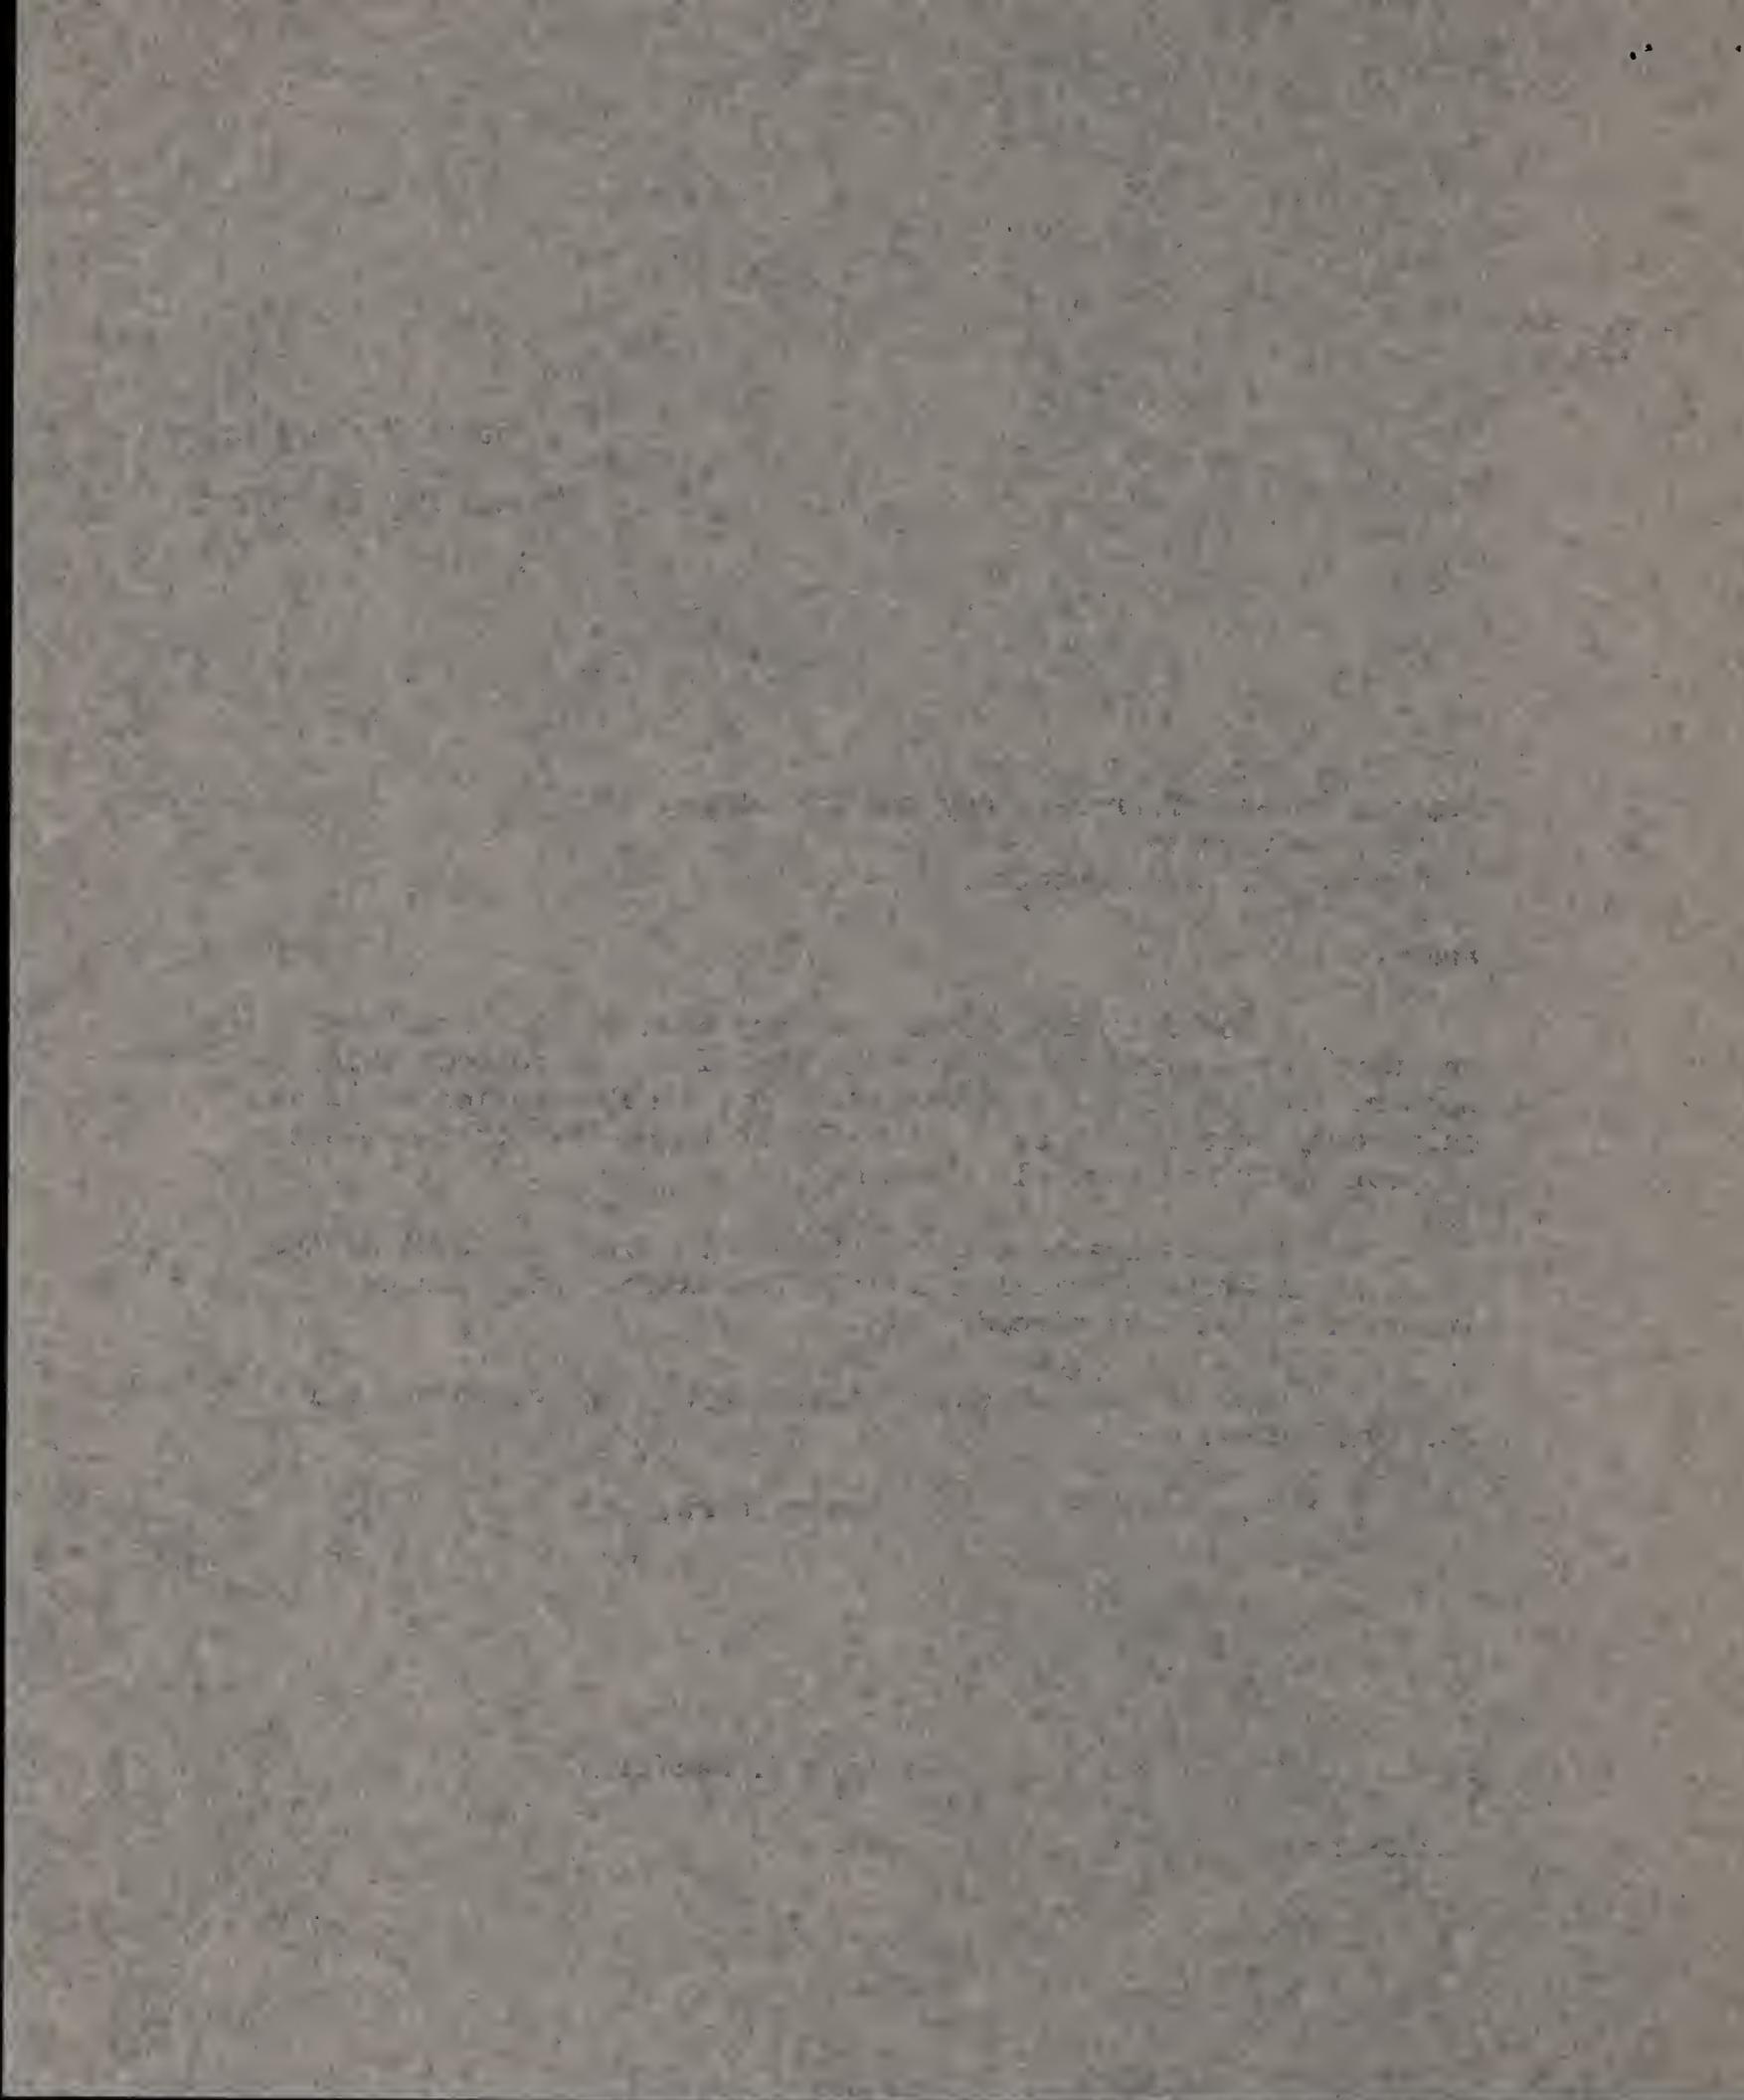

Hope to see you one of these days. Again, thanks a lot for everything.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. MacNeish:

I have pleasure in informing you that The Canada Council has awarded you a Grant in Aid of Research and Other Productive Scholarship (Category 7) of the value of $ 800.00 in accordance with the conditions contained in the attached memorandum.

Will you kindly advise us, without delay, whether you wish to accept this award. Enclosed is a form of acknowledgment which should be completed and mailed to the Secretary of the Council.

Yours sincerely,

Lillian Breen,
Secretary.

Miss Lillian Breen, Secretary,
The Canada Council,
140 Wellington Street,
Ottawa.

Dear Miss Breen:

I received from your institution during the past year a sum of $800 for a trip to study archaeological materials in the Soviet Union. Originally I had planed to go this Fall. Visas were obtained, colleagues contacted and all arrangements completed. However, at the last moment, the Branch of the Government I belong to decided that such a trip would be politically inopportune at this time. They stated though that such a trip might be forwarded to 1960. I am now making plans to go either next Spring or Fall.

My present problem, in regard to you people, is the $800 you advanced me for the said trip to Russia. Would you like me to returned the money or may I keep it to use it in 1960 or such time when it is politically opportune.

Yours sincerely,

R.S. MacNeish,
Senior Archaeologist,

Dear Dr. Smith,

We are pleased to grant permission to cite the enclosed Robert S. Peabody Museum documents, including field records and manuscripts by David Kelley and Richard S. MacNeish, relating to excavations at the Ocampo Caves, TC 247 and TC 248, Tamaulipas, Mexico. The citation and the credit specified with your letter of request are satisfactory. We look forward to reading your article, "A Reconsideration of the Ocampo Caves and the Era of Incipient Cultivation in Mesoamerica" in an upcoming issue of Latin American Antiquity.

I am sorry for the lateness of this response, and please also convey my apologies to your editors!

Dear Dr. Mac^Neish:

Thank you for sending us your signed contract for the grant-in-aid awarded you from the Research Funds of the Academy.

It is agreeable to the Committee to postpone start of the grant project, and the check for $1,000 will be sent you in March, on receipt of your letter addressed to the Treasurer, requesting payment. Your letter should also state what arrangements you have made to satisfy the contingency under which this grant was made to you.

Dear Dr. MacNeish:

Thank you very much for your prompt reply to my letter and for answering the various questions in connection with your article, also for the vita.

The text is quite clear now, but there are one or two problems in connection with the illustrations. Since I do not have here those which you sent originally, but only the last plate which you sent just now, I am going to turn the matter over to the editorial office in Missouri, and you will doubtless hear further from the Associate Editor, Mrs. Thomas.

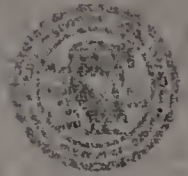

Many thanks for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

ARCHAEOLOGY

March 31, 1955

Dr. Richard S. MacNeish
National Museum of Canada
Ottawa, Canada

Dear Dr. MacNeish:

On February 25th I wrote you about your article "Ancient Maize and Mexico" which we are planning to publish in the Summer issue of ARCHAEOLOGY, hoping for answers to several questions about the plates and minor points in the text before the issue has to go to press. Now the time is approaching rapidly, and I am wondering if you got my letter, or indeed if you are out in the field somewhere. With your permission I shall exercise my editorial prerogative to decide, for instance, whether to write Nal-tel or Nal-Tel and to change (p.8) "extremely similar" to "quite similar" or "extremely like." But if possible I should like to hear from you about the other matters and I shall here repeat the paragraphs from my previous letter.

Will it be all right if we omit the figure references in the text and simply arrange the illustration without specific reference? We have four groups of illustrations (which of course have had to be removed from their heavy backing), Plates 1-3 and Figure 3. What is the relation, if any, of Figure 3 to Plate 3? We use the term "Figure" for all illustrations. If we omit figure numbers, this won't matter. Are the burials shown in Figure 3 and Plate 3 different? From what levels do they come?

On page 7 is the sentence, "Some of these projectile points were still attached by means of string and gum to wooden lance foreshafts," and a figure reference has been inserted at the end, but we have no illustration for this. Did you intend to send one?

Your small maps have been redrawn and the additional site indicated. They have been photostated and the plate will be in white on black, as I understand it.

I am expecting to send as much as possible to the printer next week, but I shall keep back your article in hope of hearing from you in a few days.

Yours sincerely,

(Mrs.) Winifred Smeaton Thomas

Dear Mrs. Thomas:

As you suspected, I was away in the field, so your letter didn't get answered as it should have. However, now I am back and I'll answer the questions you ask me about my article "Ancient Maize in Mexico."

1. I would suggest that you use Nal-tel.
2. On page 8 the change "extremely similar" to "quite similar".
3. I believe it will be all right to omit the figure references in the text.
4. Go right ahead and change the plates to figures. However, since each of my plates had a number of illustrations on them, these were referred to as figures. Also, if you are not using figure references in the text, the omission of the figure numbers in the reference to the plate makes no difference.

Mrs. Thomas,

Ottawa, April 4, 1955.

5. The burials shown in Figure 3 and Plate 3, are the same and they come from the same level.
6. On page 7, I referred to atlatl fore-shafts and originally intended to send you pictures of them. However, I no longer plan to do such, so you can take out the reference in the text.
7. Photostating of the maps should be fine.

Sorry to have held you up and will be most glad to see the article in proof when you receive it back from the printer.

Sincerely yours,

Richard S. MacNeish,

Dear Dr. MacNeish:

I asked Miss Margaret Thompson, who is helping with the proof-reading of the summer issue of ARCHAEOLOGY, to send her copy of your galley proof on to you. I hope it reached you safely, and if you have not already sent it with corrections, I hope you will send it to me here as soon as possible, so that I may send the corrected proof and dummy to the printer without delay.

I may as well ask you right now how many reprints you will want. The enclosed form shows the price of extra copies in the least expensive format. For your article the charge will be $3.00 for each additional 50 copies.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Thomas:

Enclosed please find the corrected proof for the summer issue of ARCHAEOLOGY. I have made a few changes, mainly in terms of some further analysis of these same materials I am writing about. However, I don't think that they will cause too much trouble.

Also please find enclosed my cheque for $3.00 for 50 additional copies of the reprints, which will bring my total to one hundred.

Reprints from ARCHAEOLOGY

For each article printed in ARCHAEOLOGY, fifty (50) reprints are furnished to each author without charge. These reprints are without covers, side-stapled in the least expensive format. Additional copies may be ordered at the following prices:

4 page reprint.....	$2.00	for each additional 50
6 " "	2.50	" " " "
8 " "	3.00	" " " "
10 " "	3.50	" " " "

Better finished, saddle-stitched reprints, with or without covers, may be ordered at the author's expense. The cost depends upon the number of pages, special type-setting, etc. Quotations will be furnished on request.

Your article is scheduled for the Summer 1955 number and will be 8 pages long. Orders for additional reprints or for special handling of the reprints must be received at once.

Please send orders to:

Mrs. Winifred S. Thomas
211 Jesse Hall
University of Missouri
Columbia, Missouri

Please return the "Author's Proof" promptly.

Please keep the "Duplicate" for reference.

Please mark plainly all "printer's errors" or "author's changes."

If revised proofs are not wanted, do we have all production and shipping details so we may go to press promptly when corrections are made?

Printer's errors are corrected without charge. Author's changes, not due to any fault of the printer, will be charged on a time basis.

Dear Dr. MacNeish:

Thank you for the galley proofs. I think your changes can be incorporated without very much change in the lines. The one sentence seemed to count out to more spaces so I changed the beginning of the next sentence from "However" to "But." I shall order 100 copies of your reprints and send your check for $3.00 to the business office of the Archaeological Institute of America at the University of Cincinnati.

Yours sincerely,

Winifred S. Thomas
